By Cheryl Kreider Carey, CAE, Executive Director, American Academy of Audiology

Another fiscal year (FY13) will end on June 30, 2013. A significant milestone was reached this year as the Academy crossed the 25-year mark. As evidenced by the growing number of entities reaching out to the Academy (and our A4 partners), the Academy's presence among other nonprofits, governmental agencies, and the general public as the voice of audiology increased. Here is a sampling of the outcomes of these associations:

AARP

Advanced audiology awareness at AARP's annual conference (September 2012)

Academy of Doctors of Audiology (ADA)

Worked jointly with ADA as part of a coalition of audiology organizations to publish collaborative educational documents on coding and reimbursement topics.

Acoustical Society of America (ASA)

Academy's membership in ASA provided a voice on several committees: Bioacoustics, Noise, Electroacoustics, TAG-Noise, and ANSI.

AG Bell

Promoted Academy's resources for National Audiology Awareness Month and National Protect Your Hearing Month to their members (October 2012).

AG Bell invited Academy/ABA to publish article on pediatrics in November 2012 Volta Voices.

Academy invited the AG Bell president to speak at the AudiologyNOW! (ANI) 2013 Audiology and Industry Forum.

American Academy of Otolaryngology-Head and Neck Surgery (AAO-HNS)

At ASNM's invitation, submitted comments on ASNM's Practice Guidelines for Supervising Professionals.

American Speech-Language-Hearing Association (ASHA)

Participated in monthly Audiology Quality Consortium meetings to consider updates and changes to audiology quality measure development and reporting.

Participated in a coalition of audiology organizations to publish collaborative educational documents related to coding and reimbursement topics.

Association for the Advancement of Medical Instrumentation (AAMI)

Academy representative continued to provide input regarding FDA assignment on cochlear implants.

Five Academy members invited to review cochlear implant standard.

Association for Research in Otolaryngology (ARO)

AAA Foundation provided annual travel awards for students presenting research at the ARO Conference.

Audiology Awareness Campaign (AAC)

Hosted joint leadership meeting (January 2013); continued meeting with leadership at AN! 2013.

Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services (CMS)

Ongoing educational efforts on behalf of audiology, including in-person meetings and conference calls related to fee schedule payment decreases, development and implementation of the Physician Compare Web site, PQRS, and otoacoustic emissions (OAEs).

Council for Accreditation in Occupational Hearing Conservation (CAOHC)

Requested the Academy provide representatives to serve on their board of directors.

Council of Academic Programs in Communication Science and Disorders (CAPCSD)

Academy hosted CAPCSD board and A4 leaders (September 2012).

Leadership met with CAPCSD's board at their 2013 annual meeting (April 2013).

EHDI-PALs

Served on working group to develop the Early Hearing Detection and Intervention Pediatric Audiology Links to Services (EHDI-PALs) Directory, a Web-based directory and search engine designed to help parents, hospital personnel, and physicians identify pediatric audiology facilities that will meet the individual needs of a child and his or her family.

Federal Communications Commission (FCC)

At FCC invitation, provided input on telecommunication relay programs.

Friends of the Congressional Hearing Health Caucus

Academy participated in hearing screenings/consultations for Hill staff and members (February 2013).

Healthy Hearing Foundation

Partnering organization for "Pledge for Hearing Health" in May 2013.

Hearing Industries Association (HIA)

Academy leadership provided an update at HIA's 2013 annual meeting (February 2013).

Participated in joint leadership meeting (March 2013).

Hearing Loss Association of America (HLAA)

HLAA promoted Academy's resources for National Audiology Awareness Month and National Protect Your Hearing Month to their members (October 2012).

Joint Committee on Infant Hearing (JCIH)
